ROBERT W. LEHRBURGER, United States Magistrate Judge.

The Court's order at Dkt. 198 was issued in error and is stricken. The Court understands Plaintiff's filing at Dkt. 197 to be a partial response to the motion to dismiss the fourth amended complaint filed by Defendants First Service Residential New York, Inc. and Morningside Heights Housing Corporation. The Court further understands Plaintiff's filing at Dkt. 196 to be a request for an extension to file a complete response. At Dkt. 191, the Court sua sponte previously granted Plaintiff a "one-time" extension of time to respond to the motion by September 4, 2024 (as Plaintiff had not filed any response by the August 2, 2024 deadline). Plaintiff's instant request for an extension of time at Dkt. 196 therefore is denied; to be clear, however, Plaintiff still has until September 4, 2024 to supplement the response he already has filed.

SO ORDERED.

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read 'R. Lehrburger', written over a horizontal line.
